FOREWORD FROM ROTHMANS OF PALL MALL

Everyone associated with the game of football is stimulated by the World Cup. Whether standards are high or the matches exciting, the glamour and importance of the competition never fail to capture the imagination of all football followers.

England re-emerged as a world force and returned unbeaten. Scotland were unlucky to be drawn in the strongest original group. Yet the performances of Northern Ireland really underlined all that is good in British football. As underdogs Billy Bingham's men played with the spirit and determination which won admirers throughout the world. But what was quite obvious to all who saw them was the sheer enjoyment they derived from their matches. Surely this is how football was meant to be played. Together with the sometimes naïve, but very entertaining, open football played by such emerging football nations as Algeria and Cameroon, and the sheer magic of the Brazilians on the attack, the Irish reminded us all of the romance and beauty of the game.

This is the 13th edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook and certainly it isn't reporting an unlucky year for British football. Hopefully, the good omens of the World Cup will see our international side build on the confidence gained in Spain, where the behaviour of our fans was better than expected and the sportsmanship was overall at a high standard.

Tradition plays an important rôle in the game of football, so perhaps it isn't surprising to see Aston Villa's name on the European Cup, considering they have won the FA Cup and the Championship on seven occasions each, plus three triumphs in the Football League Cup. Similarly, for a World Cup held in Europe, previous form would have pointed to Italy and West Germany reaching the final, and, of course, they did. Hopefully, again, the tradition and quality of Rothmans Football Yearbook have also produced a reputation for the publication which will stand for many years to come.

Although attendances have dropped, Association Football is still Britain's most popular sport, and with senior administrators dedicated to promote the spirit of the game and to develop missing flair at League level, we look forward to a year of very real progress in Britain. Last year we hoped for an increase in attacking football, and the introduction of three points for a win certainly produced a more positive attitude throughout the game. So let us hope that in the coming season we will see the improvement of the national teams supplemented by a continuation of European Cup dominance and, above all, a spirit of enjoyment and sportsmanship which has been universally appreciated when seen in the recent World Cup.

INTRODUCTION

The thirteenth edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook includes the results of all World Cup final tournament matches played, including the full list of teams and goalscorers. FIFA were unable to supply a complete list of all qualifying competition line-ups because they intend to include them in their own publication at a later date, but we have been able to feature all European and South American details as well as examples of other teams who reached the finals.

In addition, there is full coverage of domestic football with line-ups, goalscorers and attendances of matches played in the Football League and Scottish League, as well as the League Cup, FA Cup, Scottish League Cup and Scottish Cup. Transfers affecting players being signed by Football League clubs are given, together with any transfer fee noted at the time. As there is no official figure for such moves, the fees quoted are estimated, and with the addition of levies, including VAT, they are merely a guide to the value of the players in question.

This year's edition also marks the return of the former style of Diary which appeared in earlier issues of Rothmans Football Yearbook.

The Editor would like to thank Norman Barrett, Lionel Francis and Alan Elliott respectively for their assistance in the compilation of the Diary, Non-League Football and the Scottish season; also the invaluable assistance rendered in the completion of the book by Christine Forrest and Graeme Wright.

The Editor would also like to pay tribute to the various organisations who have helped to make this edition complete, especially Mrs Sandra Whiteside of the Football League, Mike McNamara of the Football Association, and the secretaries of all the Football League and Scottish League clubs for their kind cooperation. The ready availability of Football League secretary Graham Kelly and his staff to answer queries was as usual most appreciated. Thanks are also due to Jim Farry, the Scottish League secretary, and his staff.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editor would like to express his appreciation of the following individuals and organisations for their cooperation: Glynis Firth, Mike Foster, Chris J. Whalley, Debbie Singleton (all from the Football League); Adrian Titcombe (The Football Association); The Scottish Football Association, The Welsh Football Association, Tom Cairns of The Scottish League, the secretaries of all Football League and Scottish League clubs, Alan Dick, Malcolm Brodie, A. Rice (The English Schools FA), W. P. Goss (AFA), Maurice Golesworthy, Ken Goldman, Peter Dunk, Karen Spink, Christine Phillips, Elaine Morgan and Glenda Rollin.

EDITORIAL

The professional game may be on the gallows with a noose of insolvency around its neck, but it has cried wolf so often to threats of financial ruin that its critics remain unimpressed. It was ironic, then, that it should be Wolves who came closest to extinction at the end of the 1981–82 season.

However, the affairs at Molineux brought a disturbing development with them. In putting the club in the hands of an Official Receiver, it would seem to have initiated a kind of Russian roulette. It is hoped that by sifting through the diary of events of last season, and their revelations of fiscal failure with Bristol City, Hull City and Oxford United among the more serious candidates for bankruptcy, other clubs will not imagine that a saviour can always be found somewhere.

If and when the financial aspect is put right, an equally important move must be made to redefine the word success. It must be taken completely out of the context of the game being 'all about winning' and the obsession with matches being simply won, drawn and slaughtered. Winners provide losers, and there will always be more losers than winners. The short-sighted and narrow attitude towards success in what is a professional entertainment has already led to a type of football which has no obviously universal appeal to the uncommitted as a spectacle, based as it is on the concept that victory, whatever the manner of it, is the only answer.

The Football League's new system of three points for a win did produce an improvement in goalscoring, but by a margin too small to make any definite conclusions. Indeed, the First Division provided fewer goals than in 1980–81. But it did nothing in the continuing recession to attract more spectators to the stands and terraces. In fact, there was another chilling drop in support for the game, with overall attendances falling to a new low post-war level of just over 20 million. Manchester United had the highest attendance average at 44,570. Tottenham Hotspur came next with 35,099, followed by Liverpool on 35,060 and Manchester City with 34,063. But half of the rest of the teams in Division One recorded less than 20,000 on average, Notts County being the poorest supported with 11,627. Oddly enough, because of Sheffield United's incredible 14,891 average in the Fourth Division, this division actually showed an increase of attendances on the previous term. And there were only two clubs with less than 2000 on average: Rochdale on 1837 and Tranmere Rovers with 1735.

It is a sobering thought, when taking note of an article previously produced by the author, to read: 'Down and down go the soccer gates in Britain. The game is fast running into a cul-de-sac of decreasing receipts and increasing costs . . . attendances will improve only when the standard of play goes up.' That was written in November 1964.

To put attendances in some kind of perspective, here are some illuminating figures:

Season	Attendances	Average
1906–07	10,929,000	14,380
1937–38	28,132,933	15,225
1958–59	33,610,985	16,573
1963–64	28,535,022	14,075
1981–82	20,006,961	9865

Though the table deliberately omits the artificial boom days of the 1940s when more than a million people watched League football each weekend, in 1981–82 attendance was less than half that figure.

Every professional sport needs live spectators to support it. Sponsorship will lessen the burden of costs, but unless the intention is to drive a wedge between winning and losing teams, thereby consigning unsuccessful clubs to be watched by mere handfuls of people, the product has to be improved.

The World Cup in Spain provided just two teams whose approach had to be admired – Brazil and France. They alone played with a carefree fluency which caught the imagination of everyone sitting in his TV armchair. Alas, they were not destined to reach the final. Instead it was Italy who won. The home of catenaccio proved supreme, thanks to the Italians' expertise of converting virtually every goal chance.

This, of course, remains the dilemma: attractive football which will not necessarily produce results or safety first? What is certain is that the game will have greater overall appeal the first way rather than the second. But if professional football is to thrive, let alone survive, it will have to change its attitude.

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL AWARDS 1982

The following six special awards have been made by Rothmans to mark a worthwhile contribution to the game in season 1981–82.

KEITH BURKINSHAW. Tottenham Hotspur made a brave attempt to win a number of honours in various domestic and European spheres. In the end, as much hit by outside forces – the arduous nature of our domestic game and consequential injuries – as hampered by their own shortcomings, they had to be content with taking the FA Cup for a seventh time. None the less, manager Keith Burkinshaw pursued throughout the season his policy of playing attractive, entertaining football which drew the uncommitted as well as the dedicated to Spurs' matches. The entire country must applaud this approach.

BILLY McNEILL. In the comparatively short time that the Premier Division has operated in Scotland, Celtic have already made an impression on the competition, and under the direction of Billy McNeill, who graced the centre-half position in his playing days at Parkhead, Celtic added another championship to their substantial array of trophies. Although they had to struggle through a poor patch towards the end of the season, they had by then established a lead which proved unassailable. Their achievement was all the more praiseworthy because of an uncharacteristic slump in the League Cup.

CORINTHIAN-CASUALS. In the present era of high-powered professionalism, the stance of the Corinthian-Casuals club as upholders of the real spirit of the game remains an example to all. It was appropriate that, entering their Centenary Year, they enjoyed their best season for many a day with a fine FA Cup run reminiscent of their golden era and a high final placing in their division of the Berger Isthmian League. These play-for-fun boys often even refuse their legitimate expenses; a unique situation in senior non-League circles.

ASTON VILLA. Ensuring that the European Cup of the Champion Clubs returned to England for the sixth season in succession was a meritorious performance for Aston Villa in what for them was a difficult campaign in several ways. A change of manager during the season brought assistant Tony Barton to the fore at a time when the European Cup battles were at their highest. He assumed control in a quiet but effective fashion, and the whole club's response was worthy of those traditions long established at Villa Park.

KEITH EDWARDS. Proving that it is not always a mistake to return to a former club, Keith Edwards revelled in Sheffield United's storming season in Division Four after going back to Bramall Lane from Hull City. His 35 League goals for United put him level with Craig Madden of Bury, but Edwards had managed a last goal for Hull which gave him the edge over his rival and made him the Football League's top marksman for 1981–82 with 36 goals. It also hoisted him to a personal career total in excess of a century, and his contribution to the Sheffield club's 94 goals was well received.

GRAEME SOUNESS. Captaining Liverpool to their 13th League title was Graeme Souness, who grew in stature more during 1981–82 than in any other season of a career which he began as a youth player on the books of Tottenham Hotspur. It was at Middlesbrough that he first emerged with credit, and his midfield talents eventually came to the notice of the Anfield club. For Scotland, he has also succeeded in stamping an authoritative air of generalship, and he was seen to marked purpose for his country during the World Cup finals in Spain.

MILESTONES DIARY 1981–82

August

2 Aberdeen win the £15,000 top prize in their own four-club tournament, beating Southampton 5-1, while West Ham United earn third place with a single-goal win over Manchester United.

3 Liverpool and England goalkeeper Ray Clemence is transfer-listed . . . Tottenham Hotspur goalkeeper Barry Daines is granted a free transfer by the League after a dispute with the club, when it was alleged they had failed to enclose his new contract in a registered envelope. Daines insisted he had not received it . . . Spurs' Don McAllister, with a similar claim, is also granted a 'free' . . . Stoke City's England Under-21 international Adrian Heath, who wants a transfer, is told by manager Richie Barker: 'If you want another job it will be outside football.'

5 Leeds United are having problems raising the £1 million to pay for Peter Barnes, the West Bromwich Albion and England winger . . . Norwich City's similarly rated centre-forward Justin Fashanu, back after seven weeks playing for Adelaide City, says: 'I'm definitely moving on. I would like a big challenge and a big First Division club – with Norwich's permission. There is a lot more to this than just money.' . . . Rumanian Footballer of the Year, Marcel Raducanu, defects to West Germany.

6 Manchester United manager Ron Atkinson is optimistic that Arsenal's centre-forward Frank Stapleton will sign for them. He is also interested in signing Bryan Robson from his former club, West Bromwich Albion.

7 Paul Gilchrist (Hereford United), who won an FA Cup medal with Southampton in 1976, has to retire on medical advice, as does Preston North End's forward Ricky Thomson.

8 Tottenham manager Keith Burkinshaw refuses to be panicked into buying Ray Clemence at £350,000 despite drawing 3-3 with Glentoran in a friendly. 'They are asking an awful lot of money for a 33-year-old,' he says.

10 Wolverhampton Wanderers expect to sign Rene Van de Kerkhof, the Dutch World Cup player, from PSV Eindhoven . . . Millwall are interested in buying back their former midfield player, Dave Mehmet, after five months with Tampa Bay Rowdies. His wife Linda has been unable to settle in America.

11 Arsenal are in a race to sign Tony Woodcock from the West German club Cologne before Friday's deadline for eligibility in the coming season's European competitions.

12 Nottingham Forest learn from League tribunal that they must pay £425,000 for Mark Proctor. The figure is £325,000 below Middlesbrough's valuation but exceeds Forest's offer by £175,000.

13 Tottenham striker Garth Crooks will miss the start of the season after breaking down in training. He will have a cartilage operation . . . David O'Leary agrees to stay with Arsenal and Lee Chapman signs a new contract for Stoke.

14 Liverpool, in a flurry of transfer activity, move for Brighton and Hove Albion's Eire international defender Mark Lawrenson while preparing to shed Jimmy Case to Brighton, Colin Irwin to Swansea City and goalkeeper Clemence to Spurs. 'I've got one or two questions to ask Keith Burkinshaw,' says Clemence.

15 Woodcock is now sought by Leeds . . . The League's new competition, the Group Cup, begins quietly. Only three of the 16 ties top crowds of 3000 . . . In Auckland, New Zealand set up a record score in the World Cup, beating Fiji 13-0. Captain Steve Sumner scores six goals . . . Sheffield United complete a back-room clear-out with the departure of assistant manager Danny Bergara. He follows Harry Haslam, Martin Peters, chief scout Arthur Turner, physiotherapist Geoff Goodall and coach Geoff Vowden . . . Jimmy Greenhoff, back from a stint in Canada with Toronto, expects to link up with Port Vale.

17 Aston Villa whack East Germany's World Cup team 4-2 at Villa Park . . . Middlesbrough line up two Dutchmen: Heini Otto, an Under-23 international from Twente Enschede, and Peter Holyheuk, a 6-foot defender and amateur from The Hague . . . Stoke City will be sponsored by the Japanese photographic company Ricoh . . . Ted MacDougall, 34, now a Romsey publican, will make a comeback with Salisbury . . . Coventry City sack their third-team goalkeeper, 20-year-old Steve Murcott, for disciplinary reasons. Two years ago he made his senior début after the regular choice was injured in the pre-match warm-up . . . After crowd trouble at Halifax the club decide not to play neighbours Huddersfield Town in friendlies and improve security arrangements. 'We will make it like Alcatraz,' says chairman Sam Rorke.

18 Charlton Athletic open their new Jimmy Seed stand at The Valley. Ex-players present include Don Welsh, Leslie Fell, George Green, Alec Stock, Peter and Ted Croker, Frank Rist, Harold Hobbis, Seamus D'Arcy, Benny Fenton, Bill Dodgin senior, Charlie Hall and Fred Lucas . . . Some clubs in North America want revolutionary new rules, including the enlargement of the goal by a foot in every direction . . . Bass are to sponsor the Northern Premier League for £25,000 covering a three-year period.

19 Arsenal hope to persuade Frank Stapleton, their Eire centre-forward, to stay at Highbury and turn down Manchester United's offer while awaiting the outcome of an independent tribunal chaired by Professor Sir John Wood. Stapleton, who has been training with United, is valued by Arsenal at £2 million while United have cut their offer from £750,000 to £650,000 . . . Rene Van de Kerkhof is to stay with PSV Eindhoven, but Birmingham City sign Dutch 'B' international winger Bud Brocken from Willem II Tilburg for £110,000.

20 The Welsh FA decide to allow their four League clubs to appoint one paid director each. Cardiff City expect to provide Ron Jones, their general manager and Britain's former Olympic athlete, with the first such position . . . The League appeals Committee fix the Stapleton fee at £1.1 million including levies and VAT . . . Norwich, having transferred Fashanu to Nottingham Forest, hope to sign Imre Varadi from Everton as a replacement . . . Bobby Gould, former Chelsea assistant manager, signs a one-year playing contract for Wimbledon. He was soon to go to Aldershot as assistant manager.

21 Arsenal manager Terry Neill, commenting on the Stapleton fee following his return from Italy and a 2-2 draw with Juventus (Liam Brady's team), says: 'These fees are ridiculous.' Paul Vaessen, scorer of the goal which beat Juventus in the 1979–80 European Cup-Winners' Cup, has recovered from a fractured leg . . . The Welsh FA announce a profit of £37,813 . . . Since switching to Wembley, the FA Charity Shield has raised £723,310 . . . Clydebank's Bill Munro resigns after six years in charge.

22 The Charity Shield attracts a record 92,500 crowd, receipts £431,000 . . . At the launching of the 12th edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook, Fulham manager Malcolm Macdonald calls for Football League clubs to 'stand on their own feet'.

24 Two more transfer deals of £1 million plus are rumoured with Manchester City interested in Forest's Trevor Francis and Manchester United continuing their liking for Albion midfield player Bryan Robson . . . Sunderland make John Hawley, Steve Whitworth and Sam Allardyce available for transfer . . . Liverpool play their seventh pre-season friendly and beat Crusaders 5-0 at Seaview, Belfast in a match before 10,000 to inaugurate the Irish club's new £250,000 stand . . . Manchester United physiotherapist Jim Headridge dies after collapsing at the club's training ground.

25 Wolves are thwarted in the transfer market again when 18-year-old Ally McCoist prefers to join Sunderland. Middlesbrough and Glasgow Rangers were other disappointed clubs seeking the signature of the St Johnstone player . . . Arsenal and Ipswich Town both announce sponsorship deals with Japanese electronic companies. The Gunners will receive £500,000 from JVC over three years, Ipswich £400,000 from Pioneer.

26 Norwich announce a loss of £327,000 . . . England's 18-strong squad for the World Youth Cup in Australia includes Paul Allen, the FA Cup's youngest finalist . . . Ally MacLeod, ex-Scotland boss, is sacked by Motherwell. Bill Samuel, the club's chairman, says: 'It is an extremely unpleasant and difficult task to dismiss Mr MacLeod, as we all like him as a person at Motherwell.' . . . The League announce incentives, to clubs, to reward goalscoring on a monthly basis and for each division's highest scorers at the end of the season . . . Coventry chairman Jimmy Hill hits out at the game's big spenders. 'The lust for success by some managers and chairmen at a few clubs will put players into a pressure cooker out of which can only come disaster', he says. City announce incentives for players, who can earn up to £400 a man.

27 Jimmy Bloomfield leaves his position as Orient manager 'by mutual consent' . . . Brighton decline to pay the £125,000 decreed by the tribunal for Plymouth Argyle centre-half George Foster . . . England's squad to play Norway in the World Cup is announced in almost unique circumstances: the season proper begins tomorrow! . . . Spurs striker Steve Archibald has damaged foot ligaments.

28 Middlesbrough directors are to report Brian Clough to the FA alleging that he brought the game into disrepute. 'He should stick to his full-time job and keep out of the affairs of other clubs', says Charles Amer, Middlesbrough chairman. 'I think Clough is furious over missing out when Craig Johnston left us for Liverpool.' Boro had also reported Forest concerning an alleged illegal approach to Mark Proctor, who later joined the Nottingham club . . . Wales' World Cup players have been offered an £80,000 incentive to qualify for the finals, £20,000 from Adidas and £60,000 as a share from FIFA's pool . . . Celtic, on the eve of their new League season, have failed to reach the League Cup quarter-finals for the first time since 1963. 'Football is about disappointments as much as glory and we have pushed this to the back of our minds', said manager Billy McNeill. 'I'm convinced we're on the right lines and we'll make a strong bid to retain the title.'

29 The League season opens with modest attendances, the highest being 36,187 at Maine Road, Manchester . . . Quickest goal by Steve Neville (Sheffield United) in 35 seconds at home to Hereford United . . . Young marksman: 17-year-old Keith Curle, Bristol Rovers apprentice, against Chester . . . Sunderland manager Alan Durban is the first critic of the new system of three points for a win. Speaking after the 3-3 draw with Ipswich he says: 'It is outrageous that the clubs should lose two points each for drawing after giving a superb exhibition like that.'

30 Diego Maradona, 20, will return to Argentinos Juniors next year because Boca Juniors have failed to pay the first instalment on his transfer, having been caught by a revaluing of the peso against the dollar.

31 Scottish manager Jock Stein picks experience for his squad to play Sweden in the World Cup and has three over-age performers in the Under-21 side . . . SPORT AND THE LAW

Soccer's playing laws are the key to its existence, differentiating it from rugby and all other forms of football. Yet as the game becomes progressively torn by commercial, violent and social pressures, national laws are required to fill gaps which were never envisaged when the game's own laws were first created by the Corinthian-orientated law-makers in Queen Victoria's Britain. Previous seasons have reflected these trends through charities, commerce, companies, tax and violence – notably the latter. The 1981–82 season saw this confirmed at four levels separate from the playing game itself: Parliament, courts of law, boardroom and soccer's council chambers.

Parliament's last legislation for the whole of British sport was the Safety of Sports Grounds Act in 1975, following the Ibrox disaster in 1971. In early 1981 Mr Jack Dunnett, MP – solicitor, President of the Football League and Notts County Chairman – was associated with an attempt to face at parliamentary level the problem of football violence. The Football Crowds (Control) Bill, which made little progress, was intended 'To make further provision for the control of spectators at association football matches; and for connected purposes'. His fellow solicitor and Chairman of the FA, Mr Bert Millichip, at the Annual General Meeting of the Central Council for Physical Recreation in November 1981, called for Government intervention; in mid-May the Minister for Sport, Mr Neil Macfarlane, consulted with the four British Associations on what has become a running sore within the game, both overseas and at home.

Another approach to Parliament came via an all-party Committee for seeking tax and VAT relief, especially where grounds are improved for community use. Government assistance came to Arsenal when the Department of Employment was persuaded to reject FL and PFA advice and to grant a permit for Vladimir Petrovic from Yugoslavia.

In the courts of law activity concerned both civil and criminal judgements. In the High Court Billy Bremner was awarded £100,000 for libel damages following an allegation that he had 'fixed' a match. Mr John Malam, physiotherapist, was awarded £3600 by a Birmingham industrial tribunal for unfair dismissal by Wolverhampton Wanderers, and a Lincolnshire/Humberside fireman lost an appeal to a Hull industrial tribunal for unfair dismissal when he was sacked after admitting a charge of threatening behaviour likely to cause a breach of the peace at a football match. Still in the pipeline at the time of writing is the first-ever claim for damages by one professional player against another for a broken leg sustained in a Scottish League match. Meanwhile, a Fourth Division club coach was fined £200 by Hereford magistrates for using insulting words and behaviour to local officials, and streams of hooligans appear in courts almost daily.

Companies Acts receivers for ailing club finances became as newsworthy as the usual managerial merry-go-round. Bristol City was liquidated and replaced by another company; and Chelsea were involved in a complex company and property deal which in detail concerned the City of London's square mile rather than the Stamford Bridge playing surface.

The Football League Chairmen's seminar resulted in the formation of a sub-committee, including Sir Matt Busby and Jimmy Hill, to examine among other issues the laws of the game in relation to the so-called cynical or professional foul. This particular part of their brief is concerned with the penal laws of the game rather than its playing laws, for on the basis that this offence is a criminal or civil assault when committed deliberately or intentionally, the problem arises as to how the game's playing laws should deal with it. The League sendings-off having reached an all-time high of 150 in 1981–82, the sub-committee's role is not an idle one.

Overriding all else, however, is the problem of crowd violence and mindless hooliganism. Events throughout the season were almost a deliberate and insolent affront to the game's protests and attempts to protect itself. At the CCPR Conference in Bournemouth in November, the FA Chairman condemned the hooligan 'scum', and the following Saturday £2500 worth of damage was done by Chelsea supporters at Derby County's Baseball Ground. This resulted in FA restraints on Chelsea's followers – innocent as well as guilty – for within the game it is impossible to differentiate between the good, the bad and the ugly. Nearly six months later, UEFA fined Aston Villa £14,000 for violence committed by followers unconnected with the club; within 24 hours, rioting on Highbury's hitherto trouble-free terraces, at the beginning of the League match with West Ham United, ended outside the ground with a fatal stabbing, treated by the police as murder.

Sadly this was not the only recorded death in 1981–82. In September, after a Spurs–Manchester United game, a youth died from asphyxia following an underground escalator fracas in north London, and two courts recorded manslaughter verdicts from other fatalities: Nottingham Crown Court imposed a four-year jail sentence for a killing at Middlesbrough in September 1980, as did London's Old Bailey at the Central Criminal Court for a killing in February 1981 at Tottenham. There is, however, no suggestion that any local club was connected with the offences and it is tragic that a game of beauty should be desecrated by the minority.

A lighter side was seen through the contrasting treatment accorded to Twickenham and Newcastle streakers. The lady who paraded topless across the rugby pitch was not prosecuted on the basis that the public interest would not be served by focusing further attention on her, whereas a sailor who followed suit at St James' Park, Newcastle, was fined £100.

This discretion to prosecute and sentence is arguably at the root of the problem, for there is always the possibility of an offender escaping scot-free or with a moderate penalty. With this in mind, I set out in an Appendix to Sport and the Law, published by the Sunday Telegraph in 1978, a draft Safety of Sports Persons Act equating soccer hooligans with drunken drivers, and recommending compulsory disqualification. The practical operation would be effected by supervision or attendance orders requiring the offender's presence away from grounds at such times as games are played.

FIFA awarded a 'fair play' trophy for good conduct by teams competing in the World Cup in Spain and the Berger Isthmian League has been operating a similar scheme in the South of England's premier non-Football League competition for some years. Perhaps some imaginative sponsor could introduce a parallel scheme for 'fair play' crowds. Then the law could take a rest and soccer return to its role as a game of fun and joy.

INTRODUCTION TO CLUB SECTION

For the first time in the history of Rothmans Football Yearbook, a major alteration in the listing of career totals for Football League players was incorporated in the 1981–82 edition. On the fourth page of each club's section, the accumulative figures of League appearances include both full appearances and those made as a substitute.

However, in order that these figures can be broken down each season, they will continue to be split on the third page of the club's section as in previous years. For example, the 29+1s will still be shown on page three, but will go forward to page four as 30 – to be added to any previous total for that particular player.

It should be stressed that these substitute appearances are confined only to those players who actually appeared in the match in question and not to nominated substitutes who did not get on to the field of play during the game.

The actual players' appearances have been checked and re-checked while this change has been effected. Wherever discovered, alterations from previous years, including changes in goalscorers, have been included.

Over the years there have been a number of queries raised concerning the attendance figures which appear on these club pages. Those which feature on page two of each club are taken either from press sources at the time of the match or from estimated figures. But the final attendance figures for the season, which also incorporate the club's average crowd at home, are those officially supplied by the Football League.

On page four of the club section, the asterisk * which appears with the name of a player means that he was given a free transfer by that club at the end of the 1981–82 season. The list of players on the club's page four is based on the retained list. Any subsequent transfers appear under the section provided elsewhere in the yearbook, and the record of such players will appear under their former club. The asterisk against a number on page three of the club section denotes the player substituted. In the Scottish League, the additional dagger refers to the second substituted player.

Because of the pressure of space, it is not possible to include a list of apprentices, non-contract players and associated schoolboys retained by clubs, but those under these categories who made appearances in the Football League during 1981–82 are included.

Another innovation this year has been the award of three points for a win in Football League matches instead of two. Many clubs have therefore passed their previous record totals and, in order to keep a sense of proportion, the former record has been retained and where appropriate any higher figure for 1981–82 has also been included.

DEDUCTION OF POINTS

Two clubs each had two points deducted during the 1981–82 season for fielding unregistered players. In both cases the clubs failed to meet the registration deadline when upgrading apprentices to full professionals.

Third Division Bristol Rovers were penalised for playing Steve Bailey at Newport on 16 March (a 1-1 draw), and Fourth Division Mansfield Town for playing Colin Calderwood at Crewe on 13 March (a 2-0 win). It is interesting to note that the net point Mansfield Town achieved from their win at Crewe was eventually just sufficient to save them from the necessity of re-election.

Note: The Football League Group Cup replaces the Anglo-Scottish Cup, which was discontinued when the Scottish clubs withdrew after the 1980–81 competition; despite having won only one of the competitions, they did not consider the Football League representation to be strong enough. Originally under the sponsorship of Texaco, the competition at first embraced teams from Northern Ireland as well as England and Scotland; it became the Anglo-Scottish Cup in 1975–76.

Previous winners: Texaco Cup – 1971 Wolverhampton Wanderers, 1972 Derby County, 1973 Ipswich Town, 1974 Newcastle United, 1975 Newcastle United; Anglo-Scottish Cup – 1976 Middlesbrough, 1977 Nottingham Forest, 1978 Bristol City, 1979 Burnley, 1980 St Mirren, 1981 Chesterfield.

PAID DIRECTORS

By 522 votes to 28, an extraordinary general meeting of the Football Association on 19 November 1981 sanctioned a change in Rule 43A(4) to permit clubs to appoint one paid director. A similar proposal had been rejected by the FA in May 1981, but the amended resolution covered all clubs, not just League clubs.

Within minutes of the FA decision, Fulham's chairman, Ernie Clay, made manager Malcolm Macdonald the first paid director of an English Football League club. Although Macdonald was the first manager to gain a seat on the board, he was not the first paid director in the Football League, the Welsh FA having reached a similar decision earlier in the season, when Cardiff put director Ron Jones on their payroll.

THE SCOTTISH SEASON 1981–82

When the time comes to review one season, it is almost time to begin the next. There are plenty who look forward to the start of a new season and we live in high hopes that it will be as interesting as the last; we remember many good matches, notable goals, unusual decisions – and quietly forget those freezing evenings when nothing happened for 90 minutes and we wondered why we had bothered to come out at all.

The League Cup programme opened in 1981–82 at the beginning of August, and interest was immediately aroused when Celtic were defeated on the first day by St Mirren, and subsequently by St Johnstone. From such a start they could not recover, and for the first time in many years they failed to reach the final stages. Notable achievements came from Brechin and Forfar, both of whom won their sections against First Division opposition. The quarter-finals were completed without any upsets, and after the semi-finals, in which Rangers just managed to overcome St Mirren, and Dundee United won a splendid victory at Aberdeen after trailing in the first leg, the final was fought out at Hampden. United missed their chances in a first half which they dominated, and Rangers took over as the game progressed, just managing to edge ahead in the final minutes.

Celtic, smarting from their League Cup rebuff, were at the top of the Premier Division throughout the whole season, winning their first seven games and establishing a seemingly impregnable lead. In the New Year Aberdeen lost to Celtic on 30 January in a game which some, with perhaps more luck than insight, heralded as the championship decider. In February, though, Aberdeen had three no-score draws and a win over Airdrie and in their next sixteen games Aberdeen scored 46 goals whilst only conceding 10. Apart from a stutter when they lost 1-3 to Morton in mid-April, they brushed aside all opposition, and Celtic supporters, sitting comfortably wondering who was going to come second, suddenly found an uncomfortable gale about their necks, relieved only when their team scored the goals which gave them victory and the championship, late in their last match. Rangers were still unconvincing, and in a stage of transition. Dundee United, an exciting team to watch, were going well until the break enforced by the weather; thereafter they showed some uncertainty, but finished with two important wins to regain their place in Europe. Hibernian established themselves nicely in the middle of the table, and proved that they could be difficult to beat, while Morton, with a rather indifferent away record, kept out of trouble but never showed much of a challenge for the lead. The three teams at the bottom spent some time in sorting their final order; although Airdrie looked lost by mid-April, the Thistle challenge went on for longer, and Dundee just managed to hold them off, the final cushion of four points not really indicating the closeness of the final encounters. Dundee were something of an enigma, reported to be playing much better than their league position warranted. None the less, it is the points that count, and it is an indication of the competition aroused by such a small number in the Premier Division that a team like Dundee has no time to re-establish itself on promotion, but must hoard points like gold from the start of the season.

Motherwell, a well-balanced side astutely managed by David Hay, ran away with the First Division; there was a stern battle for the second promotion spot, and Hearts, who had looked favourites for it, came unstuck at the last fence as Kilmarnock, with a vast final victory, went ahead of them. Clydebank and St Johnstone had been up with the others until the last month, but fell away, whilst Ayr, who had looked promotion contenders until February, slipped slowly down the list. East Stirling and Queen of the South were obvious relegation candidates for some time; Dumbarton, after a weak start, drew into safety and Raith Rovers, unable to recapture previous form, were happy to avoid the drop. The other teams, including a Queen's Park side which had a very sound season, were not in serious contention in either direction.

It was almost the same story at the top of the Second Division, for Clyde were quickly ahead of the field, and ran out convincing winners. Again, the contest for the second place was sharp, and five teams were in the hunt until the last moment. Alloa eventually edged ahead of Arbroath on goal difference, but there was tremendous cut-and-thrust between the leaders in the last weeks, and anything could have happened.

The Cup team of the year was Forfar Athletic. They reached the quarter-finals of the League Cup, but went one better in the Scottish Cup, disposing of First Division opponents Hamilton, Hearts and Queen's Park on the way. Then, in the semi-final with Rangers at Hampden, they threatened to cause a cataclysmic upset until Rangers convincingly won the resulting replay. Aberdeen, scoring after only a few seconds in their third-round match against Motherwell, nevertheless found the First Division leaders a handful and that proved to be the only goal of a fascinating and exciting game. If Aberdeen deserved their win, Motherwell at least came away from the encounter with their reputation enhanced. Aberdeen's next-round encounter removed Celtic from the competition, again by just one goal. Eventually Aberdeen were worthy winners in the final, though after extra time and following an early Rangers goal which must have been one of their best in the season.

The Highland League was won by Inverness Caledonian, who displaced Keith from their perch after an imposing run at the top.

In the two top European tournaments, Scottish representatives did not get far, but the UEFA Cup was a different story. The exploits of Dundee United were soon acclaimed furth of Scotland, for they took five away goals against Monaco, another five in a scintillating display against the much-fancied Borussia Moenchengladbach, and yet another five in the next round against Winterslag. Then came that break for the weather, and United failed in the away leg of their Yugoslavian match – a sore disappointment after their magnificent earlier displays. Aberdeen, with a team containing even more Scots than their opponents, had a triumphant encounter with Ipswich Town, then currently at the head of the English league; they swept through the next round, but faltered in the home leg against SV Hamburg, and had an insufficient lead for the away game. Our teams did us well this year and, with experience in Europe counting for much, it is good to see the same teams again taking the European field in the coming season.

So much has been said and written about our luck in the World Cup draw that it is barely worth further comment. Scotland went out to Spain as underdogs, with the minimum of ballyhoo and the maximum of sensibly expressed comment from the manager. It was so close! Yet, at the end of the day, for all our disappointment, we may well be pleased with our team and with their overall showing. It is also appropriate to congratulate the enormous number of fans who found their way to Spain and gave their team such excellent support. It remains only to congratulate England and Northern Ireland on reaching the secondary stage. Meanwhile, we are already looking forward four years, to next time.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE MEETING

At an extraordinary general meeting of the Football League, held on 11 June 1982, the clubs agreed in principle the proposals put forward by the Busby Advisory Committee, and recommended that the FA be asked to put those requiring Law changes to the International Football Association Board.

Although there was no intent expressed to 'go it alone' if FIFA refused permission to experiment, it was agreed that many of the proposals could be implemented by instructing referees on the interpretation of the Laws (as had been done before, for example, in the case of the 'tackle from behind'). Thus 'pinching' ground at a throw-in could be eliminated by treating it as a foul throw (i.e. a ball not thrown in from the point where it crossed the line would be treated as a ball improperly thrown in). And if the proposal suggesting penalty awards against 'professional fouls' were rejected, referees could be instructed to send off the offender, again as provided for in the Laws (presumably for 'serious' foul play).

Other resolutions passed at the meeting included the following:

Transfer fees – half to be paid immediately, half within a year.

Transfers – ban on buying back a player within a year (to curtail 'temporary' transfers to American clubs for the summer).

Poaching – 'gentleman's agreement' on inducing managers or other club employees to break their contract now written into the League rules.

Loans – number of players a club can sign on loan during the season increased from two to five, but not more than two at a time.

Artificial pitches – may not be installed without the agreement of the League Management Committee and all the clubs (not, however, to affect QPR's three-year trial).

INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION BOARD 1982

The annual meeting of the International Football Association Board was held in Madrid on 6 July. One change was made in the actual Laws. In Law XII, Fouls and Misconduct, paragraph 5(a) in the section dealing with offences punishable by an indirect free-kick has been changed. It now reads (changes italicised):

> 'A player committing any of the five following offences:–
> . . . 5. When playing as goalkeeper and within his own penalty area
> (a) from the moment the ball comes under his control, he takes more than four steps without releasing the ball into play and – having released it – he touches the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player . . .
> shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick . . .'

Apart from the fact that the new paragraph does not fit in with the construction of the section as a whole, it opens up another area of uncertain interpretation. What is the meaning of 'under his control'? If the ball is in the goalkeeper's hands, it is obviously under his control. But there are grey areas. If, for example, a 'keeper just parries the ball with his hands and allows it to drop to his feet, may he then dribble the ball to the edge of the penalty-area, pick it up, and kick it from hand? And what is to stop him rolling the ball to a team-mate, making ground, and then picking the ball up again?

After the meeting of the International Board, there was an extraordinary general meeting in which the Football Association put forward, on the behalf of the Football League, a request for permission to try out three experimental Laws: (i) making it an offence to play the ball to your own 'keeper from outside the penalty-area, (ii) no off-side when receiving the ball from your own 'keeper if he played it from his own penalty-area, and (iii) making the 'cynical foul' punishable by a penalty-kick even when committed outside the penalty-area. The League were refused permission to make these experiments because it would 'confuse the rest of the world'.

Comment: While it is understandable that FIFA should not want individual countries experimenting with the Laws, their continuing expressed satisfaction with the Laws as they stand is unpardonable. The following two quotes say it all:

> 'Soccer has been perfect since it was born 100 years ago . . . Anybody can enjoy soccer because the rules are so simple.'
> João Havelange, President of FIFA

> 'If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.'

IRISH FOOTBALL 1981–82

By Malcolm Brodie

Northern Ireland's qualification for the World Cup finals, for the first time since 1958, was the highlight of the season and earned for manager Billy Bingham the Personality of the Year award in the Province, as well as many other accolades.

Domestically Linfield triumphed, winning the Irish League championship, the Irish Cup, Gold Cup and the County Antrim Shield. Only the Ulster Cup eluded the Blues in a remarkable season which began with a series of indifferent results. However, Roy Coyle, ex-Northern Ireland and Grimsby Town half-back, guided them through the crisis to earn himself the Manager of the Year award. Sadly, part of Linfield history was lost when fire destroyed the unreserved stand at Windsor Park, Northern Ireland's international headquarters; but with financial backing from the Government, Football Grounds Improvement Trust and the Irish FA, a new multi-million-pound cantilever stand is to be constructed on the site.

Glentoran, celebrating their centenary, looked set to make a decisive impact after winning the Ulster Cup, but they collapsed in January, struggled for six weeks and ended with a late but unavailing flourish.

Sponsorship again played a vital part in Northern Ireland soccer competitions with all but the County Antrim Shield commercially backed. In addition there was a Fair Play League award, Player of the Month scheme for the League championship and a personality prize in each round of the Irish Cup.

Felix Healy, Coleraine and ex-Port Vale striker, took the individual honours, winning the Ulster Footballer of the Year award from the Castlereagh Glentoran Supporters Club, the Football Writers Trophy and that from the Northern Ireland Players Association, who obtained freedom of contract negotiations with the Irish FA. They, too, became affiliated to the General and Municipal Workers Union.

For B Division RUC it was a season of triumph. They won the British Police championship, celebrating their diamond jubilee with a victory over the Metropolitan Police in the final at Selhurst Park.

Football lost many personalities, including Wilbur Cush, Jackie Vernon, Jimmy McCune, Bertie Fulton and Mickey McColgan, for many years a legendary figure in the Irish FA Council.

WORLD CUP 1982

Italy deservedly won the 1982 World Cup, and if there were reservations about their overall performance in Spain, there was no denying that they were the most improved team over the tournament. Even by their own standards their record in the opening group matches was abysmally negative. They failed to win a match, drawing all three of their games – as did the modest Cameroon, who retired undefeated from the fray – and progressed to the next stage by virtue of their superior goalscoring: two goals to Cameroon's one!

Paolo Rossi, the prodigal son of Italy, returned from a two-year suspension after the bribes scandal, struggled to find his form in those early encounters, but became transformed in the second round to finish as the tournament's leading goalscorer with six goals.

The Italians physically dealt with the holders, Argentina, in the first half, then beat them fairly and squarely after the break. Not content with that, they three times took the lead against Brazil, which was once too often for the South Americans, who had been the outstanding team both for the quality of their football and for entertainment value. Indeed, the contrast in styles of this match provided the second-most memorable encounter of the World Cup, the top game unquestionably being the pulsating, end to end semi-final between West Germany and France. All square at 3-3 after extra-time, the emotionally and physically drained players were called upon to settle the matter by penalty kicks. It was the first time that this unsatisfactory system had been used in the World Cup, but sadly, in a competition covering 52 games, there was no margin for a play-off.

The Germans, two down at one stage, in fact salvaged part of their reputation against the French, who were only slightly inferior to Brazil in terms of attractiveness. However, there were less savoury aspects of German play. Humiliated by one of the outsiders, Algeria, the Germans gave a miserly display on other occasions. They descended to the feigning of injury which oddly enough helped them reach the 1966 final against England, and a blatant foul on French substitute Patrick Battiston by goalkeeper Harald Schumacher at a crucial moment disrupted the French rhythm and yet went unpunished. Just as disturbing was the furore caused by the apparent arrangement between the Germans and Austria which prevented Algeria from going into the second round.

The Germans could claim that Karl-Heinz Rummenigge, easily their most gifted player, was handicapped throughout by injury. Indeed, he seemed to be either coming on or going off late to preserve his fitness. Yet the Italians were hit more seriously, in the final alone having to start without Giancarlo Antognoni and losing Francesco Graziani in the early stages.

Italy's success was a triumph for manager Enzo Bearzot, whose endeavours to unfetter his international players from the strictures of Italian domestic football had invariably foundered in the past. This time they were technically right, professional and clinical in their finishing. Another to savour the fruits of success after many campaigns was their goalkeeper and captain Dino Zoff, at 40 the oldest player in the finals. His display against Brazil belied both his years and ageing reflexes.

The youngest player of the tournament was 17-year-old Norman Whiteside of a Northern Ireland side who were one of few teams to play above themselves. They reached a peak against their dismally disappointing Spanish hosts, beating them 1-0 despite having to play for the greater part of the second half with 10 men following the sending-off of Mal Donaghy. Yet their defence never once faltered or allowed itself to be drawn into rash tackles that would inevitably have led to howls for a Spanish penalty. Such fears were understandable, for two of Spain's three previous goals had come from the spot.

The refereeing was of no greater standard than the play overall, and, despite the increase in goalscoring, this was in many respects the most unenterprising World Cup of all time. Forwards were scarce; those of above-average ability were almost non-existent. Rossi was one of the few successful orthodox leaders. Most teams packed the midfield, but whereas those like Brazil and France used the midfield as a springboard to attack from all angles, too many others relied on the mistakes of the opposition to goad them on to the offensive.

England could rightly claim to have been forced out of the competition by the vagaries of its system, for they remained unbeaten. However, just how much of the euphoria which surrounded their performances was borne of Bryan Robson scoring after 27 seconds of the first game and of catching the French on their worst day is debatable. For the Scots, in a difficult group, defensive errors proved costly when they had revealed imagination and skill in combating sides of differing quality in Brazil and the rather over-rated USSR.

The minnows certainly enlivened Spain. Honduras, Algeria and even Kuwait had their moments. New Zealand played better than their results suggest, and El Salvador shored up their defence after conceding 10 goals to Hungary.

Generally, though, the Eastern Europeans were dreadfully dull and stereotyped, especially Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia. Poland, for whom Grzegorz Lato equalled Kazimierz Deyna's 102 caps, operated fitfully, despite their third place.

Few of the top stars enhanced their reputations. Diego Maradona, in spite of his multi-million pound rating, was a big disappointment, as indeed was the Argentine side generally. Chile and Peru failed to excite, and even the admirable Brazilians would have been better rewarded with more accomplished performers at centre-forward and in goal.

France, with Marius Tresor, Michel Platini, Jean Tigana and Alain Giresse outstanding; Zico, Falcao, Socrates and Junior memorable for Brazil; Rossi, Bruno Conti and Gaetano Scirea in the blue of Italy; these were among those to be affectionately recalled. But there were many others who faded into obscurity – as did some 50 matches, including the final.

WHEN THE KISSING HAS TO STOP

In September 1981, after discussing 'the influence of the players' attitude on the field on the behaviour of spectators', FIFA's Technical Committee expressed their concern about the 'excessive demonstrative attitude of some players and teams when a goal is scored'.

The Technical Committee felt that 'the scorer should be congratulated by the team captain or the player who made the pass, but the exultant outbursts of several players at once jumping on top of each other, kissing and embracing . . . should be banned from the football pitch'. They recommended that National Associations be encouraged to curb such exaggerated behaviour with disciplinary action.

EUROPEAN NATIONS SECTION

Details have been listed for all European footballing nations but unfortunately owing to some countries' seasons finishing at different times from the British season, not all league champions and cup winners are known for the current season. Total number of championship and cup wins is given with winners' present names, with previous names in brackets. In the tables of league champions and cup winners, contemporary names are used.

BUSBY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

At their Solihull seminar in February, the League's chairmen set up a committee under the chairmanship of Sir Matt Busby to formulate proposals for Law changes that would eliminate the tactical and unsportsmanlike trends that are stifling soccer.

The committee, which included Bobby Charlton and Jimmy Hill, came up with a series of revolutionary and far-reaching proposals three months later, the chief of which were:

The cynical, or so-called 'professional' or 'tactical', foul to be punishable by a penalty-kick even if the offence occurs outside the penalty-area, if a goal is considered likely. (Comment: A long overdue reform that would eliminate this canker from the game.)

No off-side when a player receives the ball from his goalkeeper directly from the penalty-area. (Comment: Worth an experiment, but must be coupled with changes limiting a goalkeeper's movement with the ball.)

Foul throw to be ruled if a player throws in from the wrong place. (Comment: An obvious and long overdue interpretation of the Law that would eliminate this form of cheating at a stroke.)

Deliberate pass to goalkeeper from outside the penalty-area to be punished by indirect free-kick. (Comment: Not thought through sufficiently. The Law should be framed so as to prevent a goalkeeper handling the ball if it is played to him by a team-mate from a move originating outside the penalty-area.)

Unharassed goalkeepers who hold the ball for more than four seconds to concede an indirect free-kick. (Comment: Many referees cannot count steps – as Dino Zoff well knows – let alone seconds. Nevertheless, something has to be done to limit the time a goalkeeper can hold up the game.)

Other recommendations included the following: referees to ensure that an off-side player is seeking to gain an advantage or is interfering with play before penalising his side; clubs to formulate schemes for fining their own players for dissent; more contact with referees and discussions with them on the Laws of the Game; and the elimination of 'inflammatory' time-wasting such as keeping the ball near the corner flag.

Comment: On the whole, the committee's findings constitute a praiseworthy effort to save the game. The only way to get them agreed and implemented is to edit the suggestions into concrete proposals for Law changes, and then lobby the four Home FAs and the FIFA Referees' Committee by December, so that they stand a chance of being formerly proposed at the annual meeting of the International Football Association Board in the summer of 1983. INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION BOARD 1981

The annual meeting of the International Football Association Board was held at Ruthin, Wales, on 13 June 1981. No changes of any great import were made to the Laws of the Game.

The apparent policy of 'random editing' was maintained with a transposition of words in Law XII (Fouls and Misconduct) to conform with wording in Law V (Referees). There are further examples of 'tidying up', unnoted in FIFA News, sometimes of sections that have been nonsense for years, providing further evidence that the Laws of the Game are badly in need of a complete overhaul.

FIFA REFEREES' COMMITTEE

At the meeting of the Referees' Committee (5 May 1981) that preceded the International Board meeting, a proposal by the Welsh Football Association to include obstruction as an offence punishable by a direct free-kick was rejected because the Committee 'unanimously agreed that an obstruction in the penalty-area should not be penalised by a penalty-kick'.

It is not surprising, then, that in answer to a question from the Swiss FA regarding a goal-kick in which the ball touched the referee, in the penalty-area, but nevertheless went out of the area, the Committee agreed by a majority of votes that the referee should be considered as 'air' and that the ball was in play.

One cannot help observing that, if the referees came down to earth, they might notice a glaring absurdity in that very same law, namely that if a goal-kick is not kicked beyond the penalty-area it must be retaken. Why a player who touches the ball before it leaves the penalty-area cannot be punished by the award of an indirect free-kick remains a mystery, then, for yet another year. – N.S.B.

GOLDEN BOOT AWARD

Winner of the Golden Boot Award for Europe's leading League goalscorer in 1981–82 was Wim Kieft, the 19-year-old striker of Ajax and Holland, with 32 goals. The runner-up award was shared between his fellow-countryman Kees Kist of AZ 67 Alkmaar with 29, and Delio Onnis from the French club Tours. Joint fourth with 27 goals were the Portuguese striker Jacques from FC Porto and Horst Hrubesch of SV Hamburg.

EUROPEAN FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR 1981

Karl-Heinz Rummenigge, 26, retained his title of European Footballer of the Year, although he received 16 fewer points than he did in 1980 and his margin of success was halved. Even so he finished 42 points clear of runner-up Paul Breitner, his club and country colleague and the prodigal son of the Bundesliga. The poll was another triumph for the West German League System which has provided the last six winners.

Bernd Schuster, runner-up in 1980, gained more points this time, but was placed third, while France's Michel Platini, third in 1980 with 33, gained 3 more points yet dropped to fourth place. However, the comeback man was certainly Oleg Blokhin, the Dynamo Kiev striker who, since winning the award himself in 1975, had been in some decline as far as this poll was concerned.

To emphasise the return to international recognition of the Soviet Union they had three other players in the first thirteen named.

Another oddity came from the failure of the three immediately previous winners, Kevin Keegan (twice), Allan Simonsen and Franz Beckenbauer, to achieve even 1 point between them.

OTHER RECORDS

The oldest player to appear in the Football League was Neil McBain who played in goal for New Brighton v Hartlepools U, Division 3(N), 15 March, 1947. He was then aged 52 years 4 months.

The oldest player to appear for any of the home countries in a full international was Billy Meredith, who was nearly 46 years of age when he played for Wales v England, 15 March, 1920.

The record for most appearances in the Football League during one season by a player over 40 years of age was created by Bob McGrory. In his last season as a player with Stoke C (1934–35) he appeared in all 42 First Division games. Bob was then 43 years of age.

The record for most consecutive appearances in the Football League was created by Harold Bell, Tranmere R centre-half. From the opening game of season 1946–47 Bell did not miss a single game until August 1955 – a run of 401 consecutive Division 3(N) matches. Including FA Cup, Liverpool Senior Cup and Cheshire Bowl games, Bell enjoyed a run of 459 consecutive first team appearances.

John Trollope created a club record by making 770 League appearances for Swindon T between 1960 and 1980. In the Scottish League the record for most appearances for a single club was created by Bob Ferrier with 626 for Motherwell between 1918 and 1937.

Billy Wright (Wolverhampton W) set up a world record by playing in 70 consecutive internationals for England, from 1951 to 1959.

Since substitutes were introduced into League football in 1965, Bristol C is the club that has played through the longest spell without calling upon one of these players – a run of 52 League games, 4 FA Cup, and 2 League Cup ties from February 1966 to April 1967.

The shortest player to appear in the Football League is outside-right Fred le May, who was only 5ft tall. He played for Thames 1930–31, Watford 1931–32, and Clapton Orient 1932–33. The tallest was Albert Iremonger, Notts Co and Lincoln C goalkeeper 1904–27. He was 6ft 5in tall.

The longest FA Cup tie was the 4th qualifying round match between Alvechurch and Oxford C in 1971. It needed 11 hours (six games) before Alvechurch won 1-0.

The longest single game on record is that between Stockport Co and Doncaster R, 30 March, 1946. In an effort to reach a decisive result, this Third Division (N) Cup tie continued for 203 minutes before bad light forced an abandonment.

Rochdale suffered 14 consecutive home defeats in Division 3(N) in 1931–32. This is a Football League record. After beating New Brighton 3-2 on 7 November, 1931, they did not get another home point until holding Barrow to a goalless draw in their second home game of season 1932–33. During that same period Rochdale suffered one run of 17 consecutive defeats (home and away) – also a Football League record.

In season 1904–05 Manchester U won 14 consecutive Division 2 games. This Football League record was equalled by Bristol C and Preston NE in Division 2 in 1905–06 and 1950–51 respectively.

The Scottish League record for the longest run of consecutive victories was created by Morton in Division 2 in 1963–64 when they won 23 games in a row.

Nottingham F were undefeated in a run of 42 First Division games, November 1977 to December 1978. This is a Football League record.

The longest run without defeat in a single season of Football League games is one of 30 matches by Burnley in Division 1 in 1920–21.

In the Scottish League, Celtic created a record by remaining undefeated in a run of 62 games – November 1915 to April 1917.

Blackburn Rovers hold the record for the longest run of consecutive FA Cup ties without defeat. From December 1883 to December 1886 they were unbeaten in 24 Cup ties and won the trophy three times during this period.

Only two players have scored two goals for each side in a Football League game. Sam Wynne did so in a Division 2 game, 6 October, 1923, scoring twice for Oldham Ath as well as putting two through his own goal for Manchester U. Chris Nicholl (Aston Villa) scored all the goals in a 2-2 draw with Leicester C, Division 1, 20 March, 1976.

Jimmy Cookson reached a first century of Football League goals in the shortest time. He made his début for Chesterfield in 1925 and reached his century in December 1927 with West Bromwich A his 87th Football League game.

The record number of goals scored by a player making his Football League début is five – by George Hilsdon for Chelsea v Glossop, Division 2, 1 September, 1906.

The record for scoring the fastest goal in a Football League game is claimed by Jim Fryatt. According to referee Mr R. J. Simon this player scored for Bradford v Tranmere R only 4 seconds after the kick-off, 25 April, 1964. Fastest own goal was in 6 seconds by Pat Kruse (Torquay U) for Cambridge U, 3 January, 1977.

The fastest goals scored in the FA Cup Final at Wembley were obtained in the first minute. In 1928 John Roscamp put Blackburn R ahead when he charged both the Huddersfield goalkeeper and the ball into the net, and in 1955 Jackie Milburn headed Newcastle U into a first-minute lead over Manchester C.

John McIntyre scored four goals in 5 minutes for Blackburn R v Everton, Division 1, 16 September, 1922.

W. G. Richardson also scored four goals in 5 minutes for WBA, Division 1, 7 November, 1931, but this was even more remarkable because the feat was achieved in an away game – against West Ham U.

The record number of penalties missed by one side in a Football League Division 1 game is three: by Fletcher (2) and Thornley for Manchester C against Newcastle U, 27 January, 1912.

The most penalties scored by a player in a First Division game is three – Billy Walker for Aston Villa v Bradford C, 12 November, 1921; Charlie Mitten for Manchester U v Aston Villa, 8 March, 1950; and Ken Barnes for Manchester C v Everton, 7 December, 1957.

The record number of players from the same club in an England team is seven: Frank Moss, George Male, Eddie Hapgood, Wilf Copping, Raymond Bowden, Ted Drake and Clifford Bastin, all of Arsenal, played against Italy at Highbury, 14 November, 1934.

The England team twice included all Corinthian players in the 1890s but this cannot be considered a record because the Corinthians were a combined eleven, most of their players also appearing with other clubs.

The England team that won the 1966 World Cup created a record for the country by remaining unchanged in six consecutive games – the quarter-final, semi-final and final of the World Cup and their next three games.

England's longest run without defeat is one of 20 games between 1889 and 1896.

The biggest Championship-winning margin for any division of the Football League is 15 points; by Middlesbrough in Division 2 in 1973–74.

The smallest number of players called upon by a club to complete a season of Football League games is 14. Liverpool did so when winning the Championship in 1965–66, and Aston Villa equalled it in 1980–81 when they too won the Championship.

In the Scottish League, Dundee called upon only 15 players throughout season 1961–62, when they won the Championship.

The goalscoring record for a goalkeeper in a single season of Football League games is five (all from penalties) in 1923–24 by Arnold Birch of Chesterfield in Division 3(N).

Five men have both played in and managed Football League Championship winning teams: Ted Drake, Arsenal, centre-forward, 1933–34, 1934–35, 1937–38, Chelsea, manager, 1954–55. Bill Nicholson, Tottenham H, right half-back, 1950–51, manager, 1960–61. Alf Ramsey, right-back, Tottenham H, 1950–51, Ipswich T, manager, 1961–62. Joe Mercer, left-half, Everton 1938–39, Arsenal, 1947–48, 1952–53, Manchester C, manager, 1967–68. Dave Mackay, left-half, Tottenham H, 1960–61, Derby Co, manager, 1974–75. Bob Paisley, Liverpool, left half-back, 1946–47, manager, 1975–76, 1976–77, 1978–79, 1979–80.

In 1973–74 Leeds U created a Football League record for the longest run without defeat from the start of a season – 29 First Division games before losing 2-3 at Stoke. It could be said that this only equalled Liverpool's run in the Second Division in 1893–94 when they were unbeaten in all 28 games. Their 29th game that season was the extra 'Test Match' to decide promotion and relegation between the First and Second Divisions.

The youngest player to appear in the Football League is Albert Geldard who was aged 15 years 156 days when making his début for Bradford against Millwall, Division 2, 16 September, 1929.

The youngest player in an FA Cup Final is Paul Allen, who was aged 17 years 256 days when West Ham U beat Arsenal 1-0, 10 May, 1980.

The highest number of players ordered off in the Football League in a single day is eight, 5 October, 1974. This figure also represents the record for the FA Cup competition. Eight players were ordered off in 1st round matches, 9 January, 1915.

David Jack (Bolton W) scored the first goal in a Wembley Cup Final. This was in 1923 when the crowd broke in to see the Wanderers beat West Ham U 2-0.

The first official England v Scotland international was played at the West of Scotland Cricket Ground, Partick, 30 November, 1872, and resulted in a goalless draw.

Wales played their first international in 1876, losing 4-0 to Scotland in Glasgow.

Floodlit football

The first-ever game by floodlight was between two Sheffield Association teams at Bramall Lane, 14 October, 1878.

The first FA Cup tie under floodlights was a replay between Kidderminster Harriers and Brierley Hill Alliance, 14 September, 1955.

Floodlights were first switched on during an international match in England in November 1955 at Wembley – England v Spain.

The first Football League game under floodlights was Portsmouth v Newcastle U at Fratton Park, 22 February, 1956.

The first full international played entirely under floodlights in Britain took place at Wembley in 1963 when England beat N Ireland 8-3.

Hat-tricks

The first hat-trick in an FA Cup Final was scored by William Townley for Blackburn R v Sheffield Wednesday in 1890.

Equipment, etc.

Shinguards were first introduced and registered by Sam Widdowson of Nottingham F in 1874. The cross-bar first replaced the tape in 1875, and the whistle was used by the referee for the first time in 1878. Goalnets were invented and patented by J. A. Brodie of Liverpool in 1890 and were first used in the FA Cup Final in 1892.

First substitute in a Football League game was Keith Peacock of Charlton Ath, at Bolton, 21 August, 1965.

The first instance of a substitute in a Home International Championship game was at Wrexham in 1889 when Pugh of Rhostyllen took over from the injured S. G. Gillam in the Welsh goal against Scotland.

Penalty kick

The first player to score from a penalty kick in a Football League match was Heath of Wolverhampton W v Accrington, Division 1, 14 September, 1891.

Professional

COACHING AND THE COACHES

Coaching in England is organised by the English Football Association through their Coaching Department. All the official coaching awards emanate from there, and such available awards in descending order are: the Full Coaching Award, the Intermediate Coaching Award (to be introduced in 1984), the Preliminary Coaching Badge, the Local Team Manager's Award, the Youth Team Manager's Certificate, and the School Team Manager's Certificate. In addition, the FA have devised an award for schoolchildren known as the Super Skills Awards.

On the administrative side there are additionally 43 County Coaching Associations plus the three Armed Services, all with County Secretaries who deal with the day-to-day running of coaching at the lower levels and various delegated aspects of the system.

The FA Coaching Headquarters are at the FA's offices at 16 Lancaster Gate, London W2 3LW.

Around the country there are various Regional Coaches supported by Coaching Organisers, and each Regional Coach or Organiser has under his control a number of Coaching Associations formed for the purpose of bringing coaches together to discuss fresh coaching ideas and to take part in refresher courses.

The Regional Coaches and Coaching Organisers are:

Regional Coaches

North-East Region: Mr Jack Detchon, 2nd Floor, 22 High Street, Sheffield S1 2GD.

LEAGUE SPONSORSHIP

In August 1981, Pepsi-Cola launched a cash-for-goals scheme worth £70,000. The chief award, a trophy and £5000 for one team in each division, was based on one point for each home goal, two for each away goal, and three bonus points for scoring three goals or more in a League match. There were also prizes of £1000 for the top-scoring team in each division every month and in addition, the top individual goalscorer in each division at the end of the season would win a trophy and £1000. Clubs winning the monthly awards would share them with a charity of their choice.

Later in the season, the National Dairy Council upstaged Pepsi-Cola with a sponsorship deal for the Football League Cup – announced less than two weeks before the final. For a substantial – but undisclosed – amount, the League Cup became the Milk Cup, and the winners, Liverpool, took two trophies back to Anfield.

LAWS OF THE GAME

The Laws of the Game and Decisions of the International Board that follow are reproduced with the special permission of FIFA, and the text is the official text as published by FIFA.

LAW I

THE FIELD OF PLAY

The Field of Play and appurtenances shall be as shown in the following plan:

(1) Dimensions. The field of play shall be rectangular, its length being not more than 130 yards nor less than 100 yards and its breadth not more than 100 yards nor less than 50 yards. (In International Matches the length shall be not more than 120 yards nor less than 110 yards and the breadth not more than 80 yards nor less than 70 yards.) The length shall in all cases exceed the breadth.

(2) Marking. The field of play shall be marked with distinctive lines, not more than 5 inches in width, not by a V-shaped rut, in accordance with the plan, the longer boundary lines being called the touch-lines and the shorter the goal-lines. A flag on a post not less than 5ft high and having a non-pointed top, shall be placed at each corner; a similar flag-post may be placed opposite the halfway line on each side of the field of play, not less than 1 yard outside the touch-line. A halfway-line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be marked round it.

(3) The Goal-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 6 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 6 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these goal lines and the goal-line shall be called a goal-area.

(4) The Penalty-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 18 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 18 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a penalty-area. A suitable mark shall be made within each penalty-area, 12 yards from the mid-point of the goal-line, measured along an undrawn line at right-angles thereto. These shall be the penalty-kick marks. From each penalty-kick mark an arc of a circle, having a radius of 10 yards, shall be drawn outside the penalty-area.

(5) The Corner-Area. From each corner-flag post a quarter circle, having a radius of 1 yard, shall be drawn inside the field of play.

(6) The Goals. The goals shall be placed on the centre of each goal-line and shall consist of two upright posts, equidistant from the corner-flags and 8 yards apart (inside measurement), joined by a horizontal cross-bar the lower edge of which shall be 8ft from the ground. The width and depth of the goal-posts and the width and depth of the cross-bars shall not exceed 5 inches (12cm). The goal-posts and the cross-bars shall have the same width.

Nets may be attached to the posts, cross-bars and ground behind the goals. They should be appropriately supported and be so placed as to allow the goal-keeper ample room.

Footnote

Goal nets. The use of nets made of hemp, jute or nylon is permitted. The nylon strings may, however, not be thinner than those made of hemp or jute.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In International matches the dimensions of the field of play shall be: maximum 110×75 metres; minimum 100×64 metres.

(2) National Associations must adhere strictly to these dimensions. Each National Association organising an International Match must advise the visiting Association, before the match, of the place and the dimensions of the field of play.

(3) The Board has approved this table of measurements for the Laws of the Game:

130 yards	... 120 metres

100 yards	... 90

(4) The goal-line shall be marked the same width as the depth of the goal-posts and the cross-bar, so that the goal-line and goal-post will conform to the same interior and exterior edges.

(5) The 6 yards (for the outline of the goal-area) and the 18 yards (for the outline of the penalty-area) which have to be measured along the goal-line, must start from the inner sides of the goal-posts.

(6) The space within the inside areas of the field of play includes the width of the lines marking these areas.

(7) All Associations shall provide standard equipment, particularly in International Matches, when the Laws of the Game must be complied with in every respect and especially with regard to the size of the ball and other equipment which must conform to the regulations. All cases of failure to provide standard equipment must be reported to FIFA.

(8) In a match played under the Rules of a Competition, if the cross-bar becomes displaced or broken, play shall be stopped and the match abandoned unless the cross-bar has been repaired and replaced in position or a new one provided without such being a danger to the players. A rope is not considered to be a satisfactory substitute for a cross-bar.

In a Friendly Match, by mutual consent, play may be resumed without the cross-bar provided it has been removed and no longer constitutes a danger to the players. In these circumstances, a rope may be used as a substitute for a cross-bar. If a rope is not used and the ball crosses the goal-line at a point which in the opinion of the Referee is below where the cross-bar should have been he shall award a goal.

The game shall be restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where it was when play was stopped.

(9) National Associations may specify such maximum and minimum dimensions for the cross-bars and goal-posts, within the limits laid down in Law I, as they consider appropriate.

(10) Goal-posts and cross-bars must be made of wood, metal or other approved material as decided from time to time by the International FA Board. They may be square, rectangular, round, half-round or elliptical in shape. Goal-posts and cross-bars made of other materials and in other shapes are not permitted.

(11) 'Curtain-raisers' to International Matches should only be played following agreement on the day of the match, and taking into account the condition of the field of play, between representatives of the two Associations and the Referee (of the International Match).

(12) National Associations, particularly in International Matches, should — restrict the number of photographers around the field of play,

— have a line ('photographers' line') marked behind the goal-lines at least two metres from the corner flag going through a point situated at least 3.5 metres behind the intersection of the goal-line with the line marking the goal area to a point situated at least six metres behind the goal-posts,

— prohibit photographers from passing over these lines,

— forbid the use of artificial lighting in the form of 'flashlights'.

LAW II – THE BALL

The ball shall be spherical; the outer casing shall be of leather or other approved materials. No material shall be used in its construction which might prove dangerous to the players.

The circumference of the ball shall not be more than 28in and not less than 27in. The weight of the ball at the start of the game shall not be more than 16oz nor less than 14oz. The pressure shall be equal to 0.6–0.7 atmosphere, which equals 9.0–10.5lb/sq in (=600–700gr/cm²) at sea level. The ball shall not be changed during the game unless authorised by the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The ball used in any match shall be considered the property of the Association or Club on whose ground the match is played, and at the close of play it must be returned to the Referee.

(2) The International Board, from time to time, shall decide what constitutes approved materials. Any approved material shall be certified as such by the International Board.

(3) The Board has approved these equivalents of the weights specified in the Law: 14 to 16 ounces = 396 to 453 grammes.

(4) If the ball bursts or becomes deflated during the course of a match, the game shall be stopped and restarted by dropping the new ball at the place where the first ball became defective.

(5) If this happens during a stoppage of the game (place-kick, goal-kick, corner-kick, free-kick, penalty-kick or throw-in) the game shall be restarted accordingly.

LAW III – NUMBER OF PLAYERS

(1) A match shall be played by two teams, each consisting of not more than eleven players, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper.

(2) Substitutes may be used in any match played under the rules of a competition, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the authority of the international association(s) or national association(s) concerned, has been obtained,

(b) that, subject to the restriction contained in the following paragraph (c), the rules of a competition shall state how many, if any, substitutes may be used, and

(c) that a team shall not be permitted to use more than two substitutes in any match.

(3) Substitutes may be used in any other match, provided that the two teams concerned reach agreement on a maximum number, not exceeding five, and that the terms of such agreement are intimated to the Referee, before the match. If the Referee is not informed, or if the teams fail to reach agreement, no more than two substitutes shall be permitted.

(4) Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the Referee is informed before the change is made, and provided also, that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.

(5) When a goalkeeper or any other player is to be replaced by a substitute, the following conditions shall be observed:

(a) the Referee shall be informed of the proposed substitution, before it is made,

(b) the substitute shall not enter the field of play until the player he is replacing has left, and then only after having received a signal from the Referee,

(c) he shall enter the field during a stoppage in the game, and at the half-way line.

Punishment:

(a) Play shall not be stopped for an infringement of paragraph 4. The players concerned shall be cautioned immediately the ball goes out of play.

(b) For any other infringement of this law, the player concerned shall be cautioned, and if the game is stopped by the Referee, to administer the caution, it shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, to be taken by a player of the opposing team, from the place where the ball was, when play was stopped. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The minimum number of players in a team is left to the discretion of National Associations.

(2) The Board is of the opinion that a match should not be considered valid if there are fewer than seven players in either of the teams.

(3) A competition may require that the referee shall be informed, before the start of the match, of the names of not more than five players, from whom the substitutes (if any) must be chosen.

(4) A player who has been ordered off before play begins may be replaced only by one of the named substitutes. The kick-off must not be delayed to allow the substitute to join his team.

A player who has been ordered off after play has started may not be replaced.

A named substitute who has been ordered off, either before or after play has started, may not be replaced (this decision relates only to players who are ordered off under Law XII. It does not apply to players who have infringed Law IV).

(5) A player who has been replaced shall not take any further part in the game.

(6) A substitute shall be deemed to be a player and shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the Referee whether called upon to play or not. For any offence committed on the field of play a substitute shall be subject to the same punishment as any other player whether called upon or not.

LAW IV – PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

(1) A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player.

(2) Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard:

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be round in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud. Other than the metal seating for the screw type of stud, no metal plates even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base screw that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear, nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim or relief marking or ornament should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are not replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic, polyurethane or similar soft materials. Provided that there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a minimum diameter of three-eighths of an inch (10mm). Additional supporting material to stabilise studs of soft materials, and ridges which shall not protrude more than 5mm from the sole and moulded to strengthen it, shall be permitted provided that they are in no way dangerous to other players. In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this Law.

(d) Combined bars and studs may be worn, provided the whole conforms to the general requirements of this Law. Neither bars nor studs on the soles shall project more than three-quarters of an inch. If nails are used they shall be driven in flush with the surface.

(3) The goalkeeper shall wear colours which distinguish him from the other players and from the Referee.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the player at fault shall be sent off the field of play to adjust his equipment and he shall not return without first reporting to the Referee, who shall satisfy himself that the player's equipment is in order; the player shall only re-enter the game at a moment when the ball has ceased to be in play.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The usual equipment of a player is a jersey or shirt, shorts, stockings and footwear. In a match played under the rules of a competition, players need not wear boots or shoes, but shall wear jersey or shirt, shorts, or track suit or similar trousers, and stockings.

(2) The Law does not insist that boots or shoes must be worn. However, in competition matches Referees should not allow one or a few players to play without footwear when all the other players are so equipped.

(3) In International Matches, International Competitions, International Club Competitions and friendly matches between clubs of different National Associations, the Referee, prior to the start of the game, shall inspect the players' footwear, and prevent any player whose footwear does not conform to the requirements of this Law from playing until such time as it does comply.

The rules of any competition may include a similar provision.

(4) If the Referee finds that a player is wearing articles not permitted by the Laws and which may constitute a danger to other players, he shall order him to take them off. If he fails to carry out the Referee's instruction, the player shall not take part in the match.

(5) A player who has been prevented from taking part in the game or a player who has been sent off the field for infringing Law IV must report to the Referee during a stoppage of the game and may not enter or re-enter the field of play unless and until the Referee has satisfied himself that the player is no longer infringing Law IV.

(6) A player who has been prevented from taking part in a game or who has been sent off because of an infringement of Law IV, and who enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team, in breach of the conditions of Law XII, shall be cautioned. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution, the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, taken by a player of the opposing side, from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

LAW V – REFEREES

A Referee shall be appointed to officiate in each game. His authority and the exercise of the powers granted to him by the Laws of the Game commence as soon as he enters the field of play.

His power of penalising shall extend to offences committed when play has been temporarily suspended, or when the ball is out of play. His decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall:

(a) Enforce the Laws.

(b) Refrain from penalising in cases where he is satisfied that, by doing so, he would be giving an advantage to the offending team.

(c) Keep a record of the game, act as timekeeper and allow the full or agreed time, adding thereto all time lost through accident or other cause.

(d) Have discretionary power to stop the game for any infringement of the Laws and to suspend or terminate the game whenever, by reason of the elements, interference by spectators, or other cause, he deems such stoppage necessary. In such a case he shall submit a detailed report to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(e) From the time he enters the field of play, caution any player guilty of misconduct or ungentlemanly behaviour and, if he persists, suspend him from further participation in the game. In such cases the Referee shall send the name of the offender to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(f) Allow no person other than the players and linesmen to enter the field of play without his permission.

(g) Stop the game if, in his opinion, a player has been seriously injured; have the player removed as soon as possible from the field of play, and immediately resume the game. If a player is slightly injured, the game shall not be stopped until the ball has ceased to be in play. A player who is able to go to the touch or goal-line for attention of any kind, shall not be treated on the field of play.

(h) Send off the field of play, any player who, in his opinion, is guilty of violent conduct, serious foul play, or the use of foul or abusive language.

(i) Signal for recommencement of the game after all stoppages.

(j) Decide that the ball provided for a match meets with the requirements of Law II.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Referees in International Matches shall wear a blazer or blouse the colour of which is distinct from the colours worn by the contesting teams.

(2) Referees for International Matches will be selected from a neutral country unless the countries concerned agree to appoint their own officials.

(3) The Referee must be chosen from the official list of International Referees. This need not apply to Amateur and Youth International Matches.

(4) The Referee shall report to the appropriate authority misconduct or any misdemeanour on the part of spectators, officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which take place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the authority concerned.

(5) Linesmen are assistants of the Referee. In no case shall the Referee consider the intervention of a Linesman if he himself has seen the incident and from his position on the field, is better able to judge. With this reserve, and the Linesman neutral, the Referee can consider the intervention and if the information of the Linesman applies to that phase of the game immediately before the scoring of a goal, the Referee may act thereon and cancel the goal.

(6) The Referee, however, can only reverse his first decision so long as the game has not been restarted.

(7) If the Referee has decided to apply the advantage clause and to let the game proceed, he cannot revoke his decision if the presumed advantage has not been realised, even though he has not, by any gesture, indicated his decision. This does not exempt the offending player from being dealt with by the Referee.

(8) The Laws of the Game are intended to provide that games should be played with as little interference as possible, and in this view it is the duty of Referees to penalise only deliberate breaches of the Law. Constant whistling for trifling and doubtful breaches produces bad feeling and loss of temper on the part of the players and spoils the pleasure of spectators.

(9) By para. (d) of Law V the Referee is empowered to terminate a match in the event of grave disorder, but he has no power or right to decide, in such event, that either team is disqualified and thereby the loser of the match. He must send a detailed report to the proper authority who alone has power to deal further with this matter.

(10) If a player commits two infringements of a different nature at the same time, the Referee shall punish the more serious offence.

(11) It is the duty of the Referee to act upon the information of neutral Linesmen with regard to incidents that do not come under the personal notice of the Referee.

(12) The Referee shall not allow any person to enter the field until play has stopped, and only then, if he has given him a signal to do so, nor shall he allow coaching from the boundary lines.

LAW VI – LINESMEN

Two Linesmen shall be appointed, whose duty (subject to the decision of the Referee) shall be to indicate when the ball is out of play and which side is entitled to the corner-kick, goal-kick or throw-in. They shall also assist the Referee to control the game in accordance with the Laws. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct by a Linesman, the Referee shall dispense with his services and arrange for a substitute to be appointed. (The matter shall be reported by the Referee to the competent authority.) The Linesmen should be equipped with flags by the Club on whose ground the match is played.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Linesmen, where neutral, shall draw the Referee's attention to any breach of the Laws of the Game of which they become aware if they consider that the Referee may not have seen it, but the Referee shall always be the judge of the decision to be taken.

(2) National Associations are advised to appoint official Referees of neutral nationality to act as Linesmen in International Matches.

(3) In International Matches, Linesmen's flags shall be of a vivid colour, bright reds and yellows. Such flags are recommended for use in all other matches.

(4) A Linesman may be subject to disciplinary action only upon a report of the Referee for unjustified interference or insufficient assistance.

LAW VII – DURATION OF THE GAME

The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, subject to the following: (a) Allowance shall be made in either period for all time lost through accident or other cause, the amount of which shall be a matter for the discretion of the Referee; (b) Time shall be extended to permit a penalty-kick being taken at or after the expiration of the normal period in either half.

At half-time the interval shall not exceed five minutes except by consent of the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a match has been stopped by the Referee, before the completion of the time specified in the rules, for any reason stated in Law V it must be replayed in full unless the rules of the competition concerned provide for the result of the match at the time of such stoppage to stand.

(2) Players have a right to an interval at half-time.

LAW VIII – THE START OF PLAY

(a) At the beginning of the game, choice of ends and the kick-off shall be decided by the toss of a coin. The team winning the toss shall have the option of choice of ends or the kick-off. The Referee having given a signal, the game shall be started by a player taking a place-kick (i.e., a kick at the ball while it is stationary on the ground in the centre of the field of play) into his opponents' half of the field of play. Every player shall be in his own half of the field and every player of the team opposing that of the kicker shall remain not less than 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked-off; it shall not be deemed in play until it has travelled the distance of its own circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

(b) After a goal is scored, the game shall be restarted in like manner by a player of the team losing the goal.

(c) After half-time: when restarting after half-time, ends shall be changed and the kick-off shall be taken by a player of the opposite team to that of the player who started the game.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the kick-off shall be retaken, except in the case of the kicker playing the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player; for this offence, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponent's goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred. A goal shall not be scored direct from a kick-off.

(d) After any other temporary suspension: when restarting the game after a temporary suspension of play from any cause not mentioned elsewhere in these Laws, provided that immediately prior to the suspension the ball has not passed over the touch or goal-lines, the Referee shall drop the ball at the place where it was when play was suspended and it shall be deemed in play when it has touched the ground; if, however, it goes over the touch or goal-lines after it has been dropped by the Referee, but before it is touched by a player, the Referee shall again drop it. A player shall not play the ball until it has touched the ground. If this section of the Law is not complied with the Referee shall again drop the ball.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If, when the Referee drops the ball, a player infringes any of the Laws before the ball has touched the ground, the player concerned shall be cautioned or sent off the field according to the seriousness of the offence, but a free-kick cannot be awarded to the opposing team because the ball was not in play at the time of the offence. The ball shall therefore be again dropped by the Referee.

(2) Kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited.

LAW IX – BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY

The ball is out of play:

(a) When it has wholly crossed the goal-line or touch-line, whether on the ground or in the air.

(b) When the game has been stopped by the Referee.

The ball is in play at all other times from the start of the match to the finish including:

(a) If it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar or corner-flag post into the field of play.

(b) If it rebounds off either the Referee or Linesmen when they are in the field of play.

(c) In the event of a supposed infringement of the Laws, until a decision is given.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The lines belong to the areas of which they are the boundaries. In consequence, the touch-lines and the goal-lines belong to the field of play.

LAW X – METHOD OF SCORING

Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, between the goal-posts and under the cross-bar, provided it has not been thrown, carried or intentionally propelled by hand or arm, by a player of the attacking side, except in the case of a goalkeeper, who is within his own penalty-area.

The team scoring the greater number of goals during a game shall be the winner; if no goals, or an equal number of goals are scored, the game shall be termed a 'draw'.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Law X defines the only method according to which a match is won or drawn; no variation whatsoever can be authorised.

(2) A goal cannot in any case be allowed if the ball has been prevented by some outside agent from passing over the goal-line. If this happens in the normal course of play, other than at the taking of a penalty-kick: the game must be stopped and restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where the ball came into contact with the interference.

(3) If, when the ball is going into goal, a spectator enters the field before it passes wholly over the goal-line, and tries to prevent a score, a goal shall be allowed if the ball goes into goal unless the spectator has made contact with the ball or has interfered with play, in which case the Referee shall stop the game and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where the contact or interference occurred.

LAW XI – OFF-SIDE

(1) A player is in an off-side position if he is nearer to his opponents' goal-line than the ball, unless:

(a) He is in his own half of the field of play, or

(b) There are at least two of his opponents nearer their own goal-line than he is.

(2) A player shall only be declared off-side and penalised for being in an off-side position, if, at the moment the ball touches, or is played by, one of his team, he is, in the opinion of the referee

(a) interfering with play or with an opponent, or

(b) seeking to gain an advantage by being in that position.

(3) A player shall not be declared off-side by the referee

(a) merely because of his being in an off-side position, or

(b) if he receives the ball, direct, from a goal-kick, a corner-kick, a throw-in, or when it has been dropped by the referee.

(4) If a player is declared off-side, the referee shall award an indirect free-kick, which shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Off-side shall not be judged at the moment the player in question receives the ball, but at the moment when the ball is passed to him by one of his own side. A player who is not in an off-side position when one of his colleagues passes the ball to him or takes a free-kick, does not therefore become off-side if he goes forward during the flight of the ball.

LAW XII – FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences:

(a) Kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;

(b) Trips an opponent, i.e., throwing or attempting to throw him by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him;

(c) Jumps at an opponent;

(d) Charges an opponent in a violent or dangerous manner;

(e) Charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be obstructing;

(f) Strikes or attempts to strike an opponent;

(g) Holds an opponent;

(h) Pushes an opponent;

(i) Handles the ball, i.e., carries, strikes or propels the ball with his hand or arm. (This does not apply to the goalkeeper within his own penalty-area); shall be penalised by the award of a direct free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Should a player of the defending side intentionally commit one of the above nine offences within the penalty-area he shall be penalised by a penalty-kick.

A penalty-kick can be awarded irrespective of the position of the ball, if in play, at the time an offence within the penalty-area is committed.

A player committing any of the five following offences:

(1) Playing in a manner considered by the Referee to be dangerous, e.g., attempting to kick the ball while held by the goalkeeper;

(2) Charging fairly, i.e., with the shoulder, when the ball is not within playing distance of the players concerned and they are definitely not trying to play it;

(3) When not playing the ball, intentionally obstructing an opponent, i.e. running between the opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent;

(4) Charging the goalkeeper except when he

(a) is holding the ball;

(b) is obstructing an opponent;

(c) has passed outside his goal-area;

(5) When playing as goalkeeper and within his own penalty area,

(a) from the moment the ball comes under his control he takes more than four steps without releasing the ball into play and – having released it – he touches the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player, or

(b) indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the Referee, are designed merely to hold up the game and thus waste time and so give an unfair advantage to his own team – shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be cautioned if:

(j) he enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team after the game has commenced, or leaves the field of play during the progress of the game (except through accident) without, in either case, first having received a signal from the Referee showing him that he may do so. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area it may be taken from any point within the half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped. If, however, the offending player has committed a more serious offence he shall be penalised according to that section of the law he infringed;

(k) he persistently infringes the Laws of the Game;

(l) he shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the Referee;

(m) he is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct.

For any of these last three offences, in addition to the caution, an indirect free-kick shall also be awarded to the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred unless a more serious infringement of the Laws of the Game was committed. If the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, a free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be sent off the field of play, if:

(n) in the opinion of the Referee he is guilty of violent conduct or serious foul play;

(o) he uses foul or abusive language;

(p) he persists in misconduct after having received a caution.

If play be stopped by reason of a player being ordered from the field for an offence without a separate breach of the Law having been committed, the game shall be resumed by an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

---

(1) If the goalkeeper either intentionally strikes an opponent by throwing the ball vigorously at him or pushes him with the ball while holding it, the Referee shall award a penalty-kick, if the offence took place within the penalty-area.

(2) If a player deliberately turns his back to an opponent when he is about to be tackled, he may be charged but not in a dangerous manner.

(3) In case of body-contact in the goal-area between an attacking player and the opposing goalkeeper not in possession of the ball, the Referee, as sole judge of intention, shall stop the game if, in his opinion, the action of the attacking player was intentional, and award an indirect free-kick.

(4) If a player leans on the shoulders of another player of his own team in order to head the ball, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing side.

(5) A player's obligation when joining or rejoining his team after the start of the match to 'report to the Referee' must be interpreted as meaning 'to draw the attention of the Referee from the touch-line'. The signal from the Referee shall be made by a definite gesture which makes the player understand that he may come into the field of play; it is not necessary for the Referee to wait until the game is stopped (this does not apply in respect of an infringement of Law IV), but the Referee is the sole judge of the moment in which he gives his signal of acknowledgement.

(6) The letter and spirit of Law XII do not oblige the Referee to stop a game to administer a caution. He may, if he chooses, apply the advantage. If he does apply the advantage, he shall caution the player when play stops.

(7) If a player covers up the ball without touching it in an endeavour not to have it played by an opponent, he obstructs but does not infringe Law XII para. 3 because he is already in possession of the ball and covers it for tactical reasons whilst the ball remains within playing distance. In fact, he is actually playing the ball and does not commit an infringement; in this case, the player may be charged because he is in fact playing the ball.

(8) If a player intentionally stretches his arms to obstruct an opponent and steps from one side to the other, moving his arms up and down to delay his opponent, forcing him to change course, but does not make 'bodily contact' the Referee shall caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick.

(9) If a player intentionally obstructs the opposing goalkeeper, in an attempt to prevent him from putting the ball into play in accordance with Law XII, 5(a), the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick.

(10) If after a Referee has awarded a free-kick a player protests violently by using abusive or foul language and is sent off the field, the free-kick should not be taken until the player has left the field.

(11) Any player, whether he is within or outside the field of play, whose conduct is ungentlemanly or violent, whether or not it is directed towards an opponent, a colleague, the Referee, a Linesman or other person, or who uses foul or abusive language, is guilty of an offence, and shall be dealt with according to the nature of the offence committed.

(12) If, in the opinion of the Referee a goalkeeper intentionally lies on the ball longer than is necessary, he shall be penalised for ungentlemanly conduct and

(a) be cautioned and an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing team;

(b) in case of repetition of the offence, be sent off the field.

(13) The offence of spitting at opponents, officials or other persons, or similar unseemly behaviour shall be considered as violent conduct within the meaning of section (n) of Law XII.

(14) If, when a Referee is about to caution a player, and before he has done so, the player commits another offence which merits a caution, the player shall be sent off the field of play.

LAW XIII – FREE-KICK

Free-kicks shall be classified under two headings: 'Direct' (from which a goal can be scored direct against the offending side), and 'Indirect' (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal).

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick inside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall remain outside the area, and shall be at least ten yards from the ball whilst the kick is being taken. The ball shall be in play immediately it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least ten yards from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal-line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the Referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

The ball must be stationary when a free-kick is taken, and the kicker shall not play the ball a second time, until it has been touched or played by another player.

Notwithstanding any other reference in these Laws to the point from which a free-kick is to be taken, any free-kick awarded to the defending side, within its own goal-area, shall be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the free-kick has been awarded.

Punishment. If the kicker, after taking the free-kick, plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the spot where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In order to distinguish between a direct and an indirect free-kick, the Referee, when he awards an indirect free-kick, shall indicate accordingly by raising an arm above his head. He shall keep his arm in that position until the kick has been taken and retain the signal until the ball has been played or touched by another player or goes out of play.

(2) Players who do not retire to the proper distance when a free-kick is taken must be cautioned and on any repetition be ordered off. It is particularly requested of Referees that attempts to delay the taking of a free-kick by encroaching should be treated as serious misconduct.

(3) If, when a free-kick is being taken, any of the players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract their opponents, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XIV – PENALTY-KICK

A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, and the opposing goal-keeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, and at least 10 yards from the penalty-mark. The opposing goalkeeper must stand (without moving his feet) on his own goal-line, between the goal-posts, until the ball is kicked. The player taking the kick must kick the ball forward; he shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball shall be deemed in play directly it is kicked, i.e., when it has travelled the distance of its circumference, and a goal may be scored direct from such a penalty-kick. If the ball touches the goalkeeper before passing between the posts, when a penalty-kick is being taken at or after the expiration of half-time or full-time, it does not nullify a goal. If necessary, time of play shall be extended at half-time or full-time to allow a penalty-kick to be taken.

Punishment

For any infringement of this Law:

(a) by the defending team, the kick shall be retaken if a goal has not resulted.

(b) by the attacking team other than by the player taking the kick, if a goal is scored it shall be disallowed and the kick retaken.

(c) by the player taking the penalty-kick, committed after the ball is in play, a player of the opposing team shall take an indirect free-kick from the spot where the infringement occurred. If, in the case of paragraph (c), the offence is committed by the player in his opponents' goal-area, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When the Referee has awarded a penalty-kick, he shall not signal for it to be taken, until the players have taken up position in accordance with the Law.

(2) (a) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball is stopped in its course towards goal, by an outside agent, the kick shall be retaken.

(b) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball rebounds into play, from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, and is then stopped in its course by an outside agent, the Referee shall stop play and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where it came into contact with the outside agent.

(3) (a) If, after having given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, the Referee sees that the goalkeeper is not in his right place on the goal-line, he shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball has been kicked, the goal-keeper moves his feet, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(c) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of the defending team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(4) (a) If, when a penalty-kick is being taken, the player taking the kick is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, the kick, if already taken, shall be retaken, if a goal is scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a colleague of the player taking the kick encroaches into the penalty-area or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. If a goal is scored, it shall be disallowed, and the kick retaken.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(c) If, in the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraph, the ball rebounds into play from the goalkeeper, the crossbar or a goal-post, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

(5) (a) If, after the referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, the goalkeeper moves from his position on the goal-line, or moves his feet, and a colleague of the kicker encroaches into the penalty-area or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The colleague of the kicker shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of each team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The players concerned shall be cautioned.

(6) When a match is extended, at half-time or full-time, to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, the extension shall last until the moment that the penalty-kick has been completed, i.e. until the Referee has decided whether or not a goal is scored.

A goal is scored when the ball passes wholly over the goal-line.

(a) direct from the penalty-kick,

(b) having rebounded from either goal-post or the cross-bar, or

(c) having touched or been played by the goalkeeper.

The game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision.

(7) When a penalty-kick is being taken in extended time:

(a) the provisions of all of the foregoing paragraphs, except paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) shall apply in the usual way, and

(b) in the circumstances described in paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) the game shall terminate immediately the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or the goal-post.

LAW XV – THROW-IN

When the whole of the ball passes over a touch-line, either on the ground or in the air, it shall be thrown in from the point where it crossed the line, in any direction, by a player of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. The thrower at the moment of delivering the ball must face the field of play and part of each foot shall be either on the touch-line or on the ground outside the touch-line. The thrower shall use both hands and shall deliver the ball from behind and over his head. The ball shall be in play immediately it enters the field of play, but the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been touched or played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from a throw-in.

Punishment:

(a) If the ball is improperly thrown in the throw-in shall be taken by a player of the opposing team.

(b) If the thrower plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a player taking a throw-in, plays the ball a second time by handling it within the field of play before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award a direct free-kick.

(2) A player taking a throw-in must face the field of play with some part of his body.

(3) If, when a throw-in is being taken, any of the opposing players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract or impede the thrower, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct, for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XVI – GOAL-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the attacking team, it shall be kicked direct into play beyond the penalty-area from a point within that half of the goal-area nearest to where it crossed the line, by a player of the defending team. A goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked beyond the penalty-area, i.e., direct into play, the kick shall be retaken. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has touched – or been played by – another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the goal-kick shall remain outside the penalty-area whilst the kick is being taken.

Punishment:

If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When a goal-kick has been taken and the player who has kicked the ball touches it again before it has left the penalty-area, the kick has not been taken in accordance with the Law and must be retaken.

LAW XVII – CORNER-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall take a corner-kick, i.e., the whole of the ball shall be placed within the quarter circle at the nearest corner-flag post, which must not be moved, and it shall be kicked from that position. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is in play, i.e., it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Punishment:

(a) If the player who takes the kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

(b) For any other infringement the kick shall be retaken.
